

A2 Verhaltensvereinbarung

Cooperation and mutual understanding

Due to unforeseeable circumstances there are 26 students in our English class this year. This has led to some misunderstandings as far as attitude to work during lessons is concerned. As a consequence, students will have to obey the following rules from now on:

- no eating/drinking/mobiles during lessons
- no toilet-visits during lessons
- no chatting, prompting, etc.
- raise hands if you have to say/ask something

If you don't stick to these rules, you'll have to live with the consequences such as:

- more homework (if not handed in on time it will not be corrected)
- written repetitions (5 min) will not be announced any longer
- all "Jokers"²⁰ will be suspended immediately
- If you eat or chat during lessons, you'll have to write a statement (in German) for your headmaster including your signature and those of your parents - saying what you did, why you did it and why you shouldn't do it (1 page!)
- parents will be asked to come to consultation hours
- NO language week in an English-speaking country!!!!!!

If that still doesn't work, we will have extra lessons on Mondays!

²⁰ Die Schülerinnen dürfen sich einmal pro Semester entschuldigen und kommen nicht zur mündlichen Stundenwiederholung dran.
